Ex libris American Numismatic Society. One of the earliest numismatic works to employ photography. The author was "formerly Secretary of the Numismatic Society of London." In the introduction he notes: "My experience in Roman coins was very limited when I made the observation—that probably every one has made and will make under similar circumstances—namely, that, starting with the rude and heavy As, and following the series of Coins leading up to the fine types that commence with the reign of Augustus, thence tracing the series down again to the small and badly-executed Coins which make their appearance in the time of Gallienus, we have, from an artistic point of view, an epitome of the rise and fall of the Roman Empire."

Finely engraved armorial ex libris Thomas Philip Earl de Grey; ex libris Louis Kossuth Comstock. Clain-Stefanelli 14541. Engel et Serrure 4596. The first illustrated catalogue on Napoleonic medals and only the second work written on the topic, published both in English and French editions in 1819. The work is based on a continuation of Millin's work on French revolutionary medals, covering Napoleonic medals up to 1806. Editor Millingen extends coverage to Napoleon's exile in 1815. David Block, in "Napoleonic Medal Books Have Problems," The Asylum, Summer, 1985 notes: "The accuracy of most of the engravings leaves much to be desired but the notes are important... The translation is done so well that it's impossible to separate Millin's words from Millingen's, which makes it difficult to decide whether some remarks are an eye-witness account or an editor's opinion." The only English edition. Seldom offered. A supplement, published in 1821, is not present here.

Ex libris American Numismatic Society: Newell Room Library. Grierson page 285. Daehn 1567. An exceptional collection, though comprising a relatively small portion of Montagu's magnificent numismatic holdings. A remarkably accomplished British numismatist, Montagu came late to the series, purchasing his first ancient Greek coin in 1889. In 1893, he acquired the entire stock of the Paris dealer, M. Hoffmann, and from then to the time of sale, his holdings rapidly multiplied. The preface notes that "Since the dispersion of the Northwick cabinet in 1859, no collection of Greek coins so remarkable for their beauty, condition and numismatic importance, as that formed by Mr. Montagu has been offered by public auction in this country."

Despite this, he left many valuable accounts of collections that he had visited; these have been of great service to numismatics, and are still consulted today...all are written with at least some critical insight." AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY DUPLICATES

Ex libris American Numismatic Society, inscribed on bookplate: "From Wayte Raymond, 1926." Adams page 77: "One of the great collections. Superb Canadian: 1670 15 sols, Beaver Club medal, near complete jetons, tokens, etc. Definitive for historical medals, both Canadian and U. S.: Tuesday Club, Erie Canal Gold, 'Happy While United,' oval Washington, etc." William W. C. Wilson was born in 1869 and began collecting coins at an early age. His collection of Canadian coins, medals, and tokens was the finest ever assembled at the time of his death in 1924. It also contained an impressive array of American rarities. The 46 (on 45) plates depict rare United States, Canadian and foreign coins and medals, as follows: 2 plates of colonial; 1 plate of large cents; 1 plate of pattern dollars; 9 plates of Canadian tokens, military medals and coins; 7 plates of historical medals; 3 plates of Washingtonia; 1 plate of Lincoln medals; 1 plate of decorations; 13 plates of Indian Peace medals; 7 plates of foreign coins and medals. The whereabouts of only a dozen or so copies with the full complement of photographic plates is known at the present time. Special editions were apparently guarded closely. Even Henry Chapman had to pay $15.00 for one. The sale represents Raymond's finest effort as a cataloguer and a plated copy is one of the most coveted rarities of American numismatic literature. John Adams considers it "easily one of the half dozen most important sales in the entire American series." The historical significance of the sale is well stated by Raymond in his foreword: "The late W. W. C. Wilson of Montreal, who formed the splendid collection of Canadian and American coins and medals described in this catalogue, was one of the most discriminating and enthusiastic collectors of recent years. Mr. Wilson's first and most natural interest was in the coins and tokens relating to his native Canada and it may be safely said that no such assemblage of numismatic material pertaining to that country has ever before been offered for sale. He bought many collections belonging to Canadian amateurs of his time, perhaps the most important being that of the late Thomas Wilson. It is not possible in the brief space allowed in an auction catalogue to enlarge upon the historical significance most of these coins and medals have, however present day Canadian collectors will no doubt be appreciative of the opportunity to acquire rarities seldom offered. Nor did Mr. Wilson neglect the coins and medals issued in the United States and in the early Colonial days, as many of the rarest items in the collection are much sought after examples of numismatic Americana. The series of Indian Peace Medals, presented by French and English Kings and the Presidents of the United States, is one of the most important ever held in a private collection. Few of these have survived and they have an historic interest, of a personal nature, representing the efforts of the early colonists and the later pioneers in the West to placate the natives of a new country."
